

Ms. Ankita Joshi

Ms. Ankita Joshi is offering her skilled expertise to Uttarakhand University as Director - HR & Corporate Relations. Ms. Ankita Joshi is an MBA in International Business from The University of Sheffield, London (UK) which complements her global mindset. Having a comprehensive exposure of business management practices she contributes in improving the performance of Uttarakhand University in the rapidly changing global education scenario.

Ms. Ankita Joshi firmly believes that in the present day world, characterized by globalization and liberalization, quality educational ventures in India should extend their excellence towards international market and at the same time adopt the best practices followed by other countries. Realizing her intent she contributes through her highly motivating growth-oriented guidance, excellent networking abilities and the ability to rally team members towards the common goal of providing the best in education of research.