Law College Dehradun faculty of Uttaranchal University organises a Mega Blood Donation camp on 26th of November 2019, under the aegis of its Legal Aid Centre on the historic event of ‘Constitution Day’ (National Law Day). Mr. Anil Kumar Raturi Director General of Police of Uttarakhand state, presided as the Chief Guest of the occasion along with hon’ble Chancellor Shri. Jitender Joshi, Vice Chancellor. Prof. (Dr.) N.K.Joshi, Shrimati Anuradha Joshi, Dr. Abhishek Joshi, Director S.A& I.T Services and Principal & Dean Of Law College Dehradun Prof. (Dr.) Rajesh Bahuguna. The events of the day commenced with the guests paying floral tribute and homage at Shaurya Wall for the martyrs who sacrificed their lives for the service of the nation. In Pursuit of this Mr. Anil Raturi was felicitated by hon’ble Chancellor Shri. Jitender Joshi, with a bouquet and memento at the seminar hall of the college.

Principal & Dean Prof. (Dr.) Rajesh Bahuguna in his inaugural address extended his heartiest welcome to the chief guests and guest of honour of the occasion. Introducing the Guest to the audience he stated Mr. Anil Kumar Raturi has taken charge as the tenth DGP of the state. He has a B.A. honours and M.A. English Literature from Delhi University and has been awarded the prestigious President’s Police medal for his distinguished service in the year 2011. He has also represented the country in the International Roller Hockey Championship at Cairo Egypt in 1983. Besides, Mr. Raturi has the credit of holding notable positions of the state like ADG Administration, ADG law and order, DGP and Director Vigilance. He also stated that blood donation camp was started in the year 2005 with the intention to motivate other educational institutions to adopt some practice for the cause of the society. It was a proud moment for Law College Dehradun as more than 10,000 blood units have been donated to the society through these camps. Later on as per the Government’s order the preamble of the Constitution was recited by the dignitaries along with the audience.

The Chief Guest, D.G.P. (Uttarakhand), Shri Anil Kumar Raturi, at the outset, led the collective reading of preamble of the Constitution. The entire audience present in the seminar hall participated in the collective pledge of the Preamble. Addressing the gathering he stated that mission and core values is vital to improve the quality of life. Constitution and preamble is our core value and assures the dignity of an individual and unity and integrity of the nation. Every society has its own culture and insisted that the onus lies in the young lawyers to see what could be done to improve the quality of a common man. He ended his speech congratulating the management and the faculty members to celebrate the event with a noble cause of blood donation. He applauded the organizers of the event. In his speech, he explained the socio-economic and political dimensions of the preamble and observed that the same reflects the core values of our nation. “In a heterogeneous society like ours, the preamble reflects the core of our constitutional values and a torch-bearer in the process of nation-building”, he remarked. He advised the students to think, learn, reflect and imagine in all their endeavours as they are indispensable for citizen building, state building and nation building. “Whatever you do in your profession, always think that whether it is going to benefit and uplift the lowest man of the social strata”, he exhorted the students. “Political rights bereft of socio-economic rights have no meaning and this is best reflected in the preamble”, he declared.

Hon’ble Chancellor of the university, Shri Jitender Joshi stated that blood donation camp is organized every year on 26th November under the auspices of Law College Dehradun. He declared with pride that 1000 units of blood had so far been donated. He thanked the organizers as well as the donors for their noble efforts.
